Dear Parents,

Welcome back to the start of the new term.

From the very start of the week when the gate first opened everyone across the school has felt so purposeful and positive. Towards the end of the week, on Thursday, we all felt that magic pulse as the school gathered together to sing. We practiced a Cornish classic in preparation for St Piran's Day and a school favourite 'I Can See Clearly Now'. Thank you to our marvelous music troubadours made up of staff and children who made it happen and of course all of our children who sang so sweetly. It was a beautifully tender moment that everyone will savour for a long, long time to come Ready, Respectful, safe and Together!

Ofsted Visit

Our beautiful week was made particularly busy by a visit from Ofsted. This important three-day process of evaluating our school can feel both intense and daunting, but the passion, commitment, and ambition we have for one another shone throughout the inspection. We look forward to sharing the outcome with our community in due course. Most importantly, we want to express our wholehearted thanks to everyone who has been part of our school's journey - past, present, and future. Your dedication and support make all the difference.

World Book Day - Thursday 6th March!

- Bring Your Favourite Book! 📖
- Children are invited to bring their favourite book to share on Thursday 6th March for World Book Day.

🏠 Home Learning Tasks

- ✨ Journal-Style Activity - 'A Day in the Life of My Favourite Book'
- ◆ Work with your child to create a journal-style page inspired by their favourite book
  - ◆ Include drawings, quotes, key facts, or a diary entry from a character's perspective.
- ◆ Make it as creative as possible—collage, handwritten notes, or even a comic strip!

Why Get Involved?

- ✓ Encourages a love of reading 📖
- ✓ Strengthens home-school learning 🏠
- ✓ A great way to celebrate books together! 🎉

👪 Let's make World Book Day a day to remember!

Fundraising

Many of our families may be aware that one of our pupils has recently begun cancer treatment. To help ease the financial burden and support their journey to recovery, a JustGiving page has been set up.

If you would like to contribute and are able to do so, please click the link below. We know your support is greatly appreciated.
