

Year 6 | Summer 2 | 2024

Enquiry: Who holds the power?

Value: Democracy

History: Benin and 'The Great Tragedy'

What can the historical Kingdom of Benin tell us about the different ways of seeing history?

Empire, Trade, Civilisation, Cultural Appropriation

Understanding Interpretation and evidence

ICT:

Cognition Learning - Sensing with micro bits & variables in games

Art: Brave Colour

How do artists manipulate colour, light, and form to evoke emotional responses and create transformative experiences?

RE:

How does faith help people in Cornwall when things get hard?

PSHE: Growing and Changing

How do personal and societal influences, including digital interactions, shape our self-perception and decisions during critical developmental stages?

Lessons in year 6 will include pupils learning about: coping with changes, keeping safe, body image, conception, reproduction and birth.

English

Cross curricular writing

A poem linked to light

Diary entry - Olaudah Equiano

Reading: Fluency

Non-fiction -

information texts with focus on vocabulary and knowledge.

Class novel:

Can you see me now?

By Libby Scott

Maths

Themed projects, consolidation and problem solving

Science: Light

How does the manipulation of light's properties impact our daily life and technological advancements? Explore the fascinating journey of light—from its basic properties,

Music

Jon Boden listen and appraise classical music

PE

Check the weekly newsletter for class PE days.

Rounders and athletics (field)

Spanish

Key vocabulary revision