Dear Parents,

We're nearly there, with one more week of learning and festive fun to enjoy before we wind down (and up) for the Christmas break. As this term draws to a close, classrooms are buzzing with energy as they review, celebrate and showcase their remarkable learning from across the curriculum. The children's history books, stunning artwork, imaginative stories, and expanding knowledge reflect tremendous progress and pride in every class. Well done, everyone for making it happen – Together. Learning is challenging, but the greater the challenge, the greater the rewards!
